Prez Says

Ed Schwinn

This will be my last Prez Says for my term ending January 9th 2010. I'm amazed at how quickly the time passed. That's a tribute to the membership of this organization. When I look around I see some of the best craftsmen and women the world has to offer. It's demonstrated in the projects each and every one of you tackle and excellence in which you deliver them. I am also impressed by the willingness of our members to contribute whatever it takes to get the job done, whether it be volunteering to lend a pair of hands for a project to flying young eagles to manning the pancake breakfast booth in support of the chapter. This makes the job of being president easy.

I want to thank you for trusting me to lead your organization the past year and for all of the support I've received in the process.

Here's one final reminder for the annual banquet January 9th at Houston. If you've not done so already, please contact Brian to let him know you are coming. It is important we get an accurate headcount.
